Sunday, June 11, 2006

2 p.m.-4 p.m.

Los Altos Hills Town Hall

26379 Fremont Road, Los Altos Hills

Light Refreshments

Brief Biography:

Karen has lived in Los Altos and Los Altos Hills with her husband Dr. David Druker for 32 years and maintains a studio in Los Altos Hills. Karen's paintings in this exhibit include churches, landscapes and everyday objects in series, starting realistically and progressively becoming more abstract. She hopes that seeing the progression from realistic to abstract will help viewers understand abstraction.

HOPPIN' HOUNDS EVENT HAVE DOGS HOPPIN' HAPPY

More than 100 dogs and their owners braved morning rain to attend the Parks and Recreation Department's and 5 Paw Bakery-sponsored third annual Hoppin' Hounds Easter Egg Hunt on April 15 at Westwind Barn and Byrne Preserve. The event raised $650.00 for the Palo Alto Animal Services and Shelter which serves the Los Altos Hills area.

Five Paw Bakery of Los Altos, co-sponsor of the egg hunt, donated

1,500 fresh-baked pet treats the shape of large Easter eggs. Volunteers spent the early part of Saturday morning hiding the treats in Byrne Preserve. Owners walked their leashed dogs through Byrne to sniff out the treats. Event Director Tod McLemore said he was impressed with the turnout, "Los Altos Hills is a very friendly dog community."

HIDDEN VILLA

FREE SUMMER CONCERTS

Hidden Villa announces a free outdoor summer concert series for residents of Los Altos Hills, Los Altos and neighboring communities. Four twilight shows will be held on consecutive Sundays - July 16, 23, 30, and August 6. Concerts start at 6:00, at the Visitors Welcome Center of Hidden Villa, 26870 Moody Road in Los Altos Hills. Audience members can picnic on the lawn.

The series will feature popular Bay Area groups performing a wide range of music, including big band, reggae, swing, and bluegrass. Appearing on the series will be the Joe Sharino Band (July 16), Dub FX (July 23), The New Morty Show (July 30), and Hot Buttered Rum (August 6).

Hidden Villa's concert series is underwritten by the Town of Los Altos Hills; Borel Private Bank and Trust Company; The Kalish Team, Intero Real Estate, Los Altos; and the Los Altos Community Foundation.
